Production Designer

French based in Paris, France.

Jan Houllévigüe is one of the most talented production designers of our time. The earliest of his award-winning films was a Nina Ricci commercial, directed by Tony Kaye in 1996. Many other award winning commercials followed up, including Peugeot 407 "Toys" directed by Philippe André, that by itself won twenty awards around the world, including a Gold Lion at Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity and both the "World Medal" and "Best Art Direction" at the New York Festival TV Advertising Awards.

Jan also created decors and atmospheres of highly acclaimed movies, music videos and commercials working in a very close collaboration with famous international directors like Wong Kar Wai, Olivier Dahan and Jonathan Glazer to name a few.
